PRICED CATALOGUES.

104 1855 June 12th and 13th, J. W. Kline. The first large sale of Coins offered at Auction. This shows a very different scale of prices to what we have had since that time. It is really a rare catalogue.

105 1858 Nov. 1st. Edward Cogan's private collection

106 1858 Feb. 28th. Henry Bogert

107 1858 May 4th and 5th. W. Leggett Bramhall

108 1858 Dec. 19th and 20th. J. N. T. Levick. Scarce. Prices printed

109 1860 May 21st and 22d. Edward Cogan. Prices printed

110 1861 April 16th. A. S. Robinson

111 1862 John K. Curtis. Printed prices

112 1863 The late Dr. Chilton's Sale

113 1863 April 7th and 8th. Edward Cogan

114 1863 June 9th. Henry A. Muhlenberg

115 1863 Sept. 15th to 17th. J. P Leavett, Cincinnati

116 1863 Oct. 7th. Bangs, Merwin & Co.

117 1863 Dec. 15th to 17th. William A. Lilliendahl

118 1863 Dec. 29th and 30th. Bangs, Merwin & Co.

119 1864 Jan. 12th to 14th. Estate of J. P. W. Neff

120 1864 May 2d and following days. This I presume is one of the most interesting sales of miscellaneous property that has been offered before or since. The Coins will be found on pages 305 to 309. The Catalogue, containing about 5,284 lots, produced about $40,000. It is priced and named throughout, and now very rare

121 1864 May 17th to 21st. John F. McCoy. An exceedingly fine and valuable assortment, and scarce

122 1864 June 29th and 30th. Edward Cogan

123 1864 Oct. 18th to 22d. W. E. Woodward. 5th Semi-Annual Sale

124 1865 March 20th to 25th. W. E. Woodward. 6th Semi-Annual Sale

U. S. MEDALS.

All in very fine condition.

		SIZE
719	Salvator Patriæ. Head of Lincoln to right. Rev. "In Memory of the Life, Acts and Death of Abraham Lincoln," &c. In White Metal. Very fine and very scarce	22
720	Another. Precisely the same in all respects but the size, and equally rare	10

N. B.—I beg particularly to call the attention of Collectors generally to the size of the two medals above, and then refer them to lot 345 in the early part of this Catalogue, and they will find the same medal, size 52, and will be interested on learning that these have been reduced in size by some patent process of Messrs. Wyon, of London, and with a glass can be read on even the smaller size of the scroll. "Pub. by the Numismatic and Archæological Society, New York."

721	Major Geo. B. McClellan. Head to left. Rev. Eagle, surrounded by 13 Stars, 1863. Copper. Proof. Rare	12
